The Reunion of the Soldiers and Sailors of Southwestern Michigan, held at Kalamazoo last week, was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. The attendance was good and, while the extremely hot weather interfered somewhat with the enjoyment of the occasion, all endeavored to make the best of it, and the general verdict was "a royal good time." The camp-fires were very interesting and largely attended. General Alger, Col. Duffield, Hon. J. C. Burrows and Senator Stockbridge met with a very cordial reception from the boys, and their remarks were warmly and generously applanded. The attendance from this county was unusually large, and most of those who went early remained until the close. The principal officers elected for the coming year are as follows: M. A. Merrifield, Union City, President; R. R. Pealer, Three Rivers, First Vice-Pres't; C. M. Hall, Union City, Treas'r; A. A. Blakeman, Otsego, Sec'y. Henry Spaulding, of Hartford, is Vice-Presi-dent for Van Buren county.

Still, when I republished in time to inform all of its member how much more realistic is every account coming from the pen of a personal friend, I am encouraged to attempt such a one as the brief time at my disposal may permit. Let me begin then at the Gate of the Mountains near Livingstone, admitting us to a gorge just wide enough to permit a road alongside the beautiful Yellowstone, which here dashes madly on carving out its pathway as it goes, or there dances gaily on through fertile plains, its banks fringed with trees, and its clear, cool waters alive with game some fish.

For tifty-one miles we follow its winding course, exclaiming over its numerous rapids and cascades, while all the time the Snow Mountains, bordering the river on the south and east, lift their snow capped summits to a height of three or four thousand feet, and one of Nature's grandest panoramas is constantly unfolding before us. On the west the mountains are less imposing, though highly interesting because the mighty force of glacial action is so plainly written on their rugged sides. Arrived at Cinnabar, we take coaches for Mammoth Hot Springs, and gratefully, the topmost seat on a six-horse coach gave me a fine view of the imposing scenery bordering the Gardiner river, which here unites with the Yellowstone. The drive of eight miles is "lengthened sweetness long drawn out," as it is nearly all a steep upward grade, but at length a sharp turn in the road reveals the wonderful terrace formations of Mammoth Hot Springs glistening in the sunlight. Minerva Terrace directly in front of the large and comfortable hotel, rises crystal white for more than positing the most beautiful bands of delicate coloring, from a pale salmon that they might well have been the home of Iris herself. Remaining here until the next morning we entered the Park through the Golden Gate, a rugged pass whose sides raise, sheer up on either side from 200 to 300 feet, covered with bright yellow moss, whence the name. A worthy son of the mighty George Wilkes, the greatest sire the world has ever known, having over seventy (70) with records from 2:13 to 2:30, and in the stud only nine years. Bay Wilkes never made a season in the stud until the fall of 1885; hence, his old-est colts are but 3 years old, and all of them are showing wonderful action and speed. A few of his colls, last season, trotted in from 2:34% to 2:45, when less than three years old. They are nearly all Bays, are large, rangy fellows; no "outs" about them, as they are all sound.

BAY WILKES is regarded as one of the very best sons of the great George Wilkes. Bay Wilkes is as sons of the great George Wilkes. Bay Wilkes is as good a sire as stands in Michigan, and will make one more season (1890) at the low price of $25.00. Mares not proving in foal in 1890 can be returned free in old enough and commence to drop into the '30 class, his service fee will not be less than from $100 to $200, and this will not be later than 1891.

You saw him trot at our Fair last fall a race every day, winning them all without making an effort and getting a record of 2:41, and showed, on our track, better than 2:28 in his three-year-old form. I place him, before fall, to trot as fast as any stallion in the state. I will allow him to serve a few marce at $25.00 the season (1880). Marcs not proving in foal can be returned free in 1891. After June 15th he will go into training, and you will see him trot in 2:20 or better this year. No man has two (2) better Wilkes stallions than I have in Bay Wilkes, and Van Burken Wilkes, and their services for almost a song. Will stand in same barn with Bay Wilkes,

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Sarah A. Clark, heir-at-law of said deceased, praying for an adjudication and determination of who are or were the legal heirs of said deceased at the time of his death, and entitled to inherit his real estate;

Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the 8th day of September, 1890, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and all persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the probate office, in the village of Paw Paw, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The True Northerner, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Van Buren, for three successive weeks at least previous to said day of hearing.
